Press Release

Guardian Capital LP adds two new mandates to its roster of solutions focused on Guarding Your Prosperity Journey™

TORONTO, March 31, 2021 – Guardian Capital LP (Guardian Capital) today announced the launch of ETF series of Guardian Canadian Bond ETF and Guardian Canadian Sector Controlled Equity Fund (the Guardian Funds), which are expected to commence trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX) when the market opens this morning.

These Guardian Funds continue the build-out of solutions that strive to improve risk-adjusted outcomes for investors in their Prosperity Journey. Guardian Capital aims to achieve this by using a thoughtful risk management approach, which combines long-term discipline with fundamental analysis.

“In an investment landscape that is frequently prioritizing the chase for short-term gains over risk management, these new offerings mirror two long-tenured mandates currently managed by Guardian Capital for institutions and high-net-worth investors, and are focused on delivering strong risk-adjusted long-term returns,” said Barry Gordon, Managing Director and Head of Canadian Retail Asset Management at Guardian Capital. “We believe these Guardian Funds fit seamlessly into our existing offerings focused on Guarding Your Prosperity Journey™, providing two more ways for Canadian investors to capitalize on Guardian Capital’s expertise.”

About the Guardian Funds

Guardian Canadian Bond ETF (TSX: GCBD) seeks to provide a high level of current interest income while at the same time preserving capital and seeking opportunities for capital appreciation by investing, directly or indirectly, primarily in Canadian bonds, debentures, notes or other evidence of indebtedness. This Guardian Fund uses a proactive, disciplined management approach while employing various analytical tools to identify investments that offer value on a relative basis, with a view to maximizing current income while preserving the prospect for some capital growth. Guardian Capital adheres to a risk management process that is designed to limit total exposure to individual issuers, diversify exposure to various term maturities and credit risks, and maintain portfolio liquidity.

Guardian Canadian Sector Controlled Equity Fund (TSX: GCSC) seeks to achieve long-term growth of capital while maintaining steady current dividend income by investing, directly or indirectly, primarily in common shares or other equity-related securities issued by Canadian companies, with a focus on reducing exposure to resources. Guardian Capital seeks to identify companies that it believes have the potential to provide above-market returns with below-market risk using a rigorous fundamental approach to security selection, and generally aims to have reduced exposure to volatile resource-dependent sectors of the Canadian market.

Guardian Canadian Bond ETF has closed its initial offering of ETF units and Guardian Canadian Sector Controlled Equity Fund has closed its initial offering of unhedged ETF units (together with the ETF units, the Units). All Units of the Guardian Funds are denominated in Canadian dollars.
